- (a) All and any business undertaken by the Company is transacted subject to these Conditions each of which shall be deemed to be incorporated in and to be a condition of any agreement between the Company and its customers. The Company only deals with Goods subject to these Conditions. The Company is not a common carrier and shall accept no liability as such;
- (b) The Company in its sole and absolute discretion may refuse to deal with any Goods without assigning any reason therefore.

In all circumstances, the Company acts as agent for the customer and not as principal. The Company does not conduct or effect the transport of any goods in its own name or for its own account and does not make or purport to make or enter into any contract with the customer for the carriage, storage, handling or other conveyance of the Goods. At all times, the Company acts as agent for the customer and agrees to procure and enter into (as agent for the customer) contracts with third parties for the provision of such services. The Company shall not be liable for the acts or omissions of any such third parties. Any instructions given to the Company may in the absolute discretion of the Company be complied with by the Company entering into agreements with third parties as agent for the customer as disclosed principal or by the Company as principal contractor by its own servants or subcontractors performing part or all of the relevant Services or by the Company employing or instructing or entrusting the Goods to others, on such other conditions as those third parties may stipulate to perform part or all of the Services. The customer authorises the Company to enter into any such arrangements on such conditions and irrevocably ratifies those conditions, agrees to be bound by such other conditions and to release the Company from liability and indemnify the Company against any claims arising out of their acceptance and operation in the provision of the Services.

4. Customers entering into transactions of any kind with the Company expressly warrant that they are either the owners or the authorised agents of the owners of any and all Goods or property the subject matter of the transaction. By entering the transaction they accept these Conditions for themselves and for all other parties on whose behalf they are acting and they warrant that they have authority so to do.
5. Subject to express instructions in writing given by the customer and by the Company, the Company reserves to itself complete freedom of choice of means route and procedure to be followed in but not limited to, the handling, transportation, storage and packing of Goods. If in the Company's opinion it is necessary or desirable in the customer's interests to depart from any express instructions, the Company shall be at liberty to do so.
6. Except where the Company is instructed in writing to pack the Goods the customer warrants that all Goods have been properly and sufficiently packed and/or prepared.
7. The Company is entitled to retain and be paid all brokerages commissions, allowances and other remunerations retained by or paid to Ship Forwarding Agents (or Freight Forwarders) and Insurance Brokers.
8. Quotations are given on the basis of immediate acceptance and subject to the right of withdrawal before acceptance and revision after acceptance. If any changes occur in the rates of customs, duty, freight, warehousing, insurance premiums or other charges applicable to the Goods, quotations and charges shall be subject to revision accordingly with or without notice.
9. The customer, and the senders, owners and consignees of any Goods and their agents, if any, warrant the accuracy of and are bound by all descriptions, values and other particulars furnished to the Company, including as to the nature, number of packages and weight of the goods, and shall jointly and severally indemnify and keep indemnified upon demand the Company against all losses, damages, expenses, fines or other costs arising from any inaccuracy or omission, even if such inaccuracy or omission is not due to any negligence, wilful act or omission of the customer.
10. The customer warrants that any VGM provided to the Company is accurate under Marine Orders 42 and has been calculated in accordance with an approved method and that the customer will indemnify and keep indemnified the Company upon demand against all loss, damages, expenses, fines or other costs arising from any inaccuracy or failure to supply a VGM obtained by one of the methods approved and in time to be used in vessel planning, even if such inaccuracy or omission is not due to any negligence, wilful act or omission of the customer.
11. When Goods are accepted or dealt with upon instructions to collect freight, duties, charges or other expenses from the consignee or any other person the customer shall remain responsible for the same if they are not paid by such consignee or other person.
12. The Company's charges to the customers including storage charges and freight shall be deemed fully earned on receipt of the Goods by the Company and shall be paid and non-returnable in any event, cargo lost or not lost.
 - (a) All unpaid charges shall be paid in full and without any offset, counterclaim or deduction.
 - (b) The Company's charges including freight have been calculated on the basis of particulars furnished by or on behalf of the customer. The Company may at any time open any container or any other package or unit in order to re-weigh, re-measure or re-value the contents and if the particulars furnished by or on behalf of the customer are incorrect, the customer shall pay any proportional additional charges, in addition to all costs and expenses of such re-weighing, re-measuring or re-valuing.
13. The customer will indemnify the Company for all charges and liabilities arising in connection with the use of any container or containers, including repair costs, cleaning costs and/or container detention/hire charges. The customer's indemnity will include any reasonable costs, either administrative or legal, incurred by the Company in recovering from the customer any amounts owing, pursuant to this indemnity.
14. No insurance will be effected except upon express instructions as to the risks to be insured against and the value or values to be declared in writing by the customer and all insurances effected by the Company subject to the usual exceptions and conditions of the policies of the insurance company or underwriters accepting the risk. The Company shall not be under any obligation to effect a separate insurance on each consignment but may declare it on any open or general policy. Should the insurers dispute their liability for any reason the insured shall have recourse against the insurers only and the Company shall not be under any responsibility or liability in relation thereto, notwithstanding that the premium upon the policy may not be at the same rate as that charged by the Company or paid to the Company by its customer.

15. The Company shall not be liable for:
- (a) loss of or damage to Goods;
 - (b) any delay in delivery, forwarding or transit or failure to deliver Goods, any deterioration, contamination, evaporation or any consequential loss or loss of market;
 - (c) failure to follow instructions given by or on behalf of the customer;
 - (d) any damage or expense arising from or in any way connected with marks, numbers, brands, contents, quality or description of any Goods;
 - (e) loss or damage resulting from fire, water, explosion or theft;
 - (f) any loss, damage, additional costs, penalties or other liabilities arising or resulting from any statement, information, forecast, prediction or advice made or given, whether negligently or otherwise, in relation to the liability of the customer to pay any customs duty in relation to the Goods or as to the particular tariff or classification, howsoever caused or arising, including without limiting the foregoing, where caused or arising due to the negligence, breach of contract, wilful act or default, conversion or misappropriation of the Goods by any carrier or the Company's servants, agents or subcontractors, unless such loss, damage, cost or expense was caused by the negligence of the Company in selecting any such carrier, servant, agent or subcontractor or breach of the terms of this agreement by the Company in failing to follow any lawful and reasonable instructions given by the customer and accepted by the Company.

16. Without any limitation of any other provision of this Agreement and despite anything to the contrary contained herein, the Company shall not be liable in any circumstances whatsoever in respect of any indirect, consequential or economic loss (other than physical loss of or damage to Goods), including without limitation any loss of profit, delay, deviation, loss of use, loss of sale, loss of market, wasted expenditure or liabilities to any third parties.
17. All rights, immunities and limitations of liability contained herein shall continue to have their full force and effect in all circumstances notwithstanding any breach of any term or condition hereof or any collateral agreement, including fundamental breach thereof.
18. To the extent that the Company is precluded by law from excluding, restricting or modifying any condition, guarantee right or remedy which would otherwise have the effect of limiting or excluding the liability of the Company under these terms, then the Company's liability arising out of any one incident and whether or not there has been any declaration of value of the Goods is limited to any of the following as determined in the sole and absolute discretion of the Company:

- (a) the supplying of the Services again; or
- (b) the payment of the cost of having the Services supplied again; or
- (c) the lesser of A$200.00 for loss of or damage to any such Goods, packages or units or A$2.00 per kilogram of the gross weight for loss of or damage to any such Goods, packages or units or A$20.00 per package or unit lost or damaged.

For the purposes of this clause, the word "package" shall include the contents even if particulars have been provided or incorporated in any document of the Company.

19. The Company shall be discharged of all liability unless suit is brought in a forum having jurisdiction to hear and determine the dispute within twelve months after the date the Goods were lost or damaged, or delivery of the Goods or the date when the Goods should have been delivered.
20. Instructions to collect payment on delivery (COD) in cash or otherwise are accepted by the Company upon the condition that the Company in the matter of such collection will be liable for the exercise of reasonable diligence and care only.
21. Perishable Goods, which are not taken up immediately upon arrival or which are insufficiently addressed or marked or otherwise not identifiable may be sold or otherwise disposed of without any notice to the customer and payment or tender of the net proceeds of any sale after deduction of charges shall be equivalent to delivery. The customer shall pay all charges and expenses arising in connection with the sale or disposal of the Goods.
22. Non-perishable Goods which cannot be delivered either because they are insufficiently or incorrectly addressed or because they are not collected or accepted by the consignee may be sold or returned at the Company's option at any time after the expiration of 21 days from a notice in writing sent to the address which the customer gave to the Company on delivery of the Goods. The customer shall pay all charges and expenses arising in connection with the sale or return of the Goods. A communication from any agent or correspondent of the Company to the effect that the Goods cannot be delivered for any reason shall be conclusive evidence of that fact.

23. Except under special arrangements previously made in writing the Company will not accept or deal with any noxious, dangerous, hazardous or inflammable or explosive Goods or any Goods likely to cause damage. If a person delivers such Goods to the Company or causes the Company to handle or deal with any such Goods (except under special arrangements previously made in writing) the customer, owners and consignees and their agents shall be liable for all loss or damage caused thereby and shall jointly and severally indemnify the Company against all penalties claims damages costs and expenses arising in connection therewith and the Goods may be destroyed or otherwise dealt with at the sole discretion of the Company or any other person in whose custody they may be at the relevant time. If such Goods are accepted under arrangements previously made in writing they may nevertheless be so destroyed or otherwise dealt with if they become dangerous to other Goods or property. The expression "Goods likely to cause damage" includes Goods likely to harbour or encourage vermin or other pests and all such Goods as fall within the definition of hazardous and dangerous Goods in the legislation governing cartage by road or rail in the States and Territories of Australia.
24. Except under special arrangements previously made in writing the Company will not accept bullion, coins, precious stones, jewellery, valuables, antiques, pictures, livestock or plants and the Company will not accept any liability whatever for any such Goods except under special arrangements previously made in writing.
25. Pending forwarding and delivery Goods may be warehoused or otherwise held at any place or places at the sole discretion of the Company at the customer's or owner's risk and expense.
26. The Company shall have a particular and general lien over all Goods and documents relating thereto in its possession or control in respect of any sums of whatsoever amount and nature due at any time to the Company from the customer and the senders, owners and consignees of any Goods and their agents under this or any other contract, including the costs of recovering any such sums and/or exercising the lien and any rights of sale thereunder. If any moneys due to the Company are not paid within 14 days after notice has been given to the person from whom the moneys are due, any such Goods or documents may be sold by auction or otherwise at the sole discretion of the Company and at the expense of such person and the proceeds first applied in or towards satisfaction of such particular and general lien and the Company's expenses. Upon accounting to the customer for any balance remaining after payment of any sum due to the Company and the costs of sale or disposal, the Company shall be discharged of any liability whatsoever in respect of the Goods and/or documents. If on the sale of the Goods the proceeds fail to realise the amount due, the Company shall be entitled to recover the difference from any of the customer and the senders, owners and consignees of any Goods.
27. (a) By entering into any agreement to which these Conditions apply, the customer on his own behalf and as agent of the owner, sender and consignee agrees and further offers to limit the liability of all servants, employees and agents of the Company in respect to the Goods and subject to the agreement to the extent that each such servant, employee and agent shall be protected by and entitled to the full benefit of all provisions in these Conditions excluding or restricting liability of any kind.
- (b) The offer hereinbefore referred to shall be accepted by the act of each such servant employee or agent in performing any function in relation to or affecting the Goods the subject of the agreement;
- (c) For the purposes of the foregoing provisions of this clause the Company is and shall be deemed to be acting as agent on behalf of and trustee for the benefit of all persons who are or become its servants employees or agents from time to time and all such persons shall to this extent be and be deemed to be parties to the agreement concerned.
28. In addition to and without prejudice to the foregoing Conditions the customer undertakes that it shall in any event indemnify the Company against all liabilities suffered or incurred by the Company arising directly or indirectly from or in connection with the customer's instructions or their implementation or the Goods, and in particular the customer shall indemnify the Company in respect of any liability it may be under to any servant, agent or sub-contractor, or any haulier, carrier, warehouseman, or other person whatsoever at any time involved with the Goods arising out of any claim made directly or indirectly against any such party by the customer or by any sender, consignee or owner of the Goods or by any person interested in the Goods or by any other person whatsoever.
29. Without prejudice to any other condition, the Company shall have the right to enforce any liability of the customer under these Conditions or to recover any sums to be paid by the customer under these Conditions not only against or from the customer but also if it thinks fit against or from the sender and/or owners and/or consignees of the Goods.
30. This document contains the entire terms of the agreement between the parties and may only be amended in writing by the consent of and signed by all parties. Any terms and conditions of the customer whatsoever are hereby expressly excluded and waived, notwithstanding that they are or were provided before, at the time of or after entry into this agreement. Despite this, in the event that any such terms and conditions are held to be operative, the terms contained in this document are intended to be a code in respect of any matters contained herein and, in respect of any matters not addressed herein, any such terms and condition shall be given effect only to the extent that they are not inconsistent with the terms herein.

31. The Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered as described unless notice of loss or of damage to the Goods indicating the general nature of such loss or damage shall have been given in writing to the Company or to its representative at the place of delivery before or at the time of removal of the Goods by a representative of the person entitled to delivery thereof or if the loss or damage be not apparent within three consecutive days thereafter.

32. The Company is committed to taking all reasonable steps to ensure that any carriage of goods by road performed as part of the Services is performed safely and in accordance with the Heavy Vehicle National Law and the CoR provisions it contains. The Company will not comply with any directive or instruction by the customer that might have the effect of contributing to a breach of the Heavy Vehicle National Law or preventing the Company from taking all steps that it considers to be necessary to prevent any breach of the Heavy Vehicle National Law or to otherwise comply with its duty of care under the Heavy Vehicle National Law. The Company will not, under any circumstances or to any extent, be liable to the customer or any other person for any sum whatsoever arising from any action or inaction of the Company, its servants, employees, agents or subcontractors reasonably undertaken or refrained from in order to comply with the Heavy Vehicle National Law. In the event of a breach of CoR obligations by the customer, the Company may cease the provision of further services.

33. No agent or employee of the Company has the Company's authority to alter or vary these conditions.

34. All the rights, immunities and exemptions from liability in these Conditions shall continue to have their full force and affect in all circumstances and notwithstanding any breach of this contract or of any of these Conditions by the Company or any other person entitled to the benefit of such provisions and irrespective of whether such may constitute a fundamental breach of contract or a breach of a fundamental term. It is agreed that if any provision or any part of any provision in these Conditions is unenforceable such enforceability shall not affect any other provision or any other part of such provision.

35. (a) If the Company is affected, or likely to be affected, by a Force Majeure Event, the Company must immediately give the other prompt notice of that fact including:

- (i) full particulars of the Force Majeure Event;
- (ii) an estimate of its likely duration;

(iii) the obligations affected by it and the extent of its effect on those obligations; and

(iv) the steps taken to rectify it;

(v) and the obligations of the Company under this document are suspended to the extent to which they are affected by the relevant Force Majeure Event as long as the Force Majeure Event continues.

(b) If the Company claims a Force Majeure Event it must use its best endeavours to remove, overcome or minimise the effects of that Force Majeure Event as quickly as possible. However, this does not require the Company to settle any industrial dispute in any way it does not want to.

36. Unless otherwise stated, all charges quoted are exclusive of GST. If a taxable supply arises in connection with these Conditions, then provided the supplier has first issued a Invoice, the recipient of the taxable supply will in addition to any other payment due under these Conditions offer pay to the supplier that amount of GST, with payment due on receipt of the Invoice.

37. This agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with Victorian Law and any dispute arising under it (including without limitation as to its existence, formation, terms, interpretation, operation, breach or termination) shall be referred to and resolved by the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Victoria and any Courts entitled to hear appeals therefrom.

38. Notwithstanding the terms of this agreement, in the event that the Company is held to be acting as principal in its own right, this contract is subject to the terms of the modified Hague-Visby Rules as contained in Schedule 1A of the Carriage of Goods by Sea Act 1991 (Cth) and the Company is entitled to all rights, limitations, exclusions and protections afforded to the Carrier therein and nothing else contained in these terms is or shall be construed as any waiver by the Company of any such rights, limitations, exclusions and protections, which shall be given full force and effect despite anything to the contrary contained herein.
